San Diego COE Instructional Continuity Learning Considerations and Support for...
- African American Students
- LGBTQIA+ Students
- Migrant Students
- Foster Youth & Students Experiencing Homelessness
- English Learners
- Native American Students

LACOE Resources for Equity, Social Justice, and Engagement: The resources included on this page will enable you to help our students process the unsettling emotions that they may be experiencing now.

Sacramento COE School Year Planning: A Guide to Address the Challenges of COVID-19 describes district considerations and options for health/safety protocols, in-person and remote learning, and much more.

Community Engagement Initiative
- Maintaining High Levels of Parent/Family Engagement during Distance Learning Archived Video and Resources
- Supporting Families and Communities in Distance Learning Archived Video, Slides and Resources
- Monday June 15 at 1:00-2:00: Virtually Engaging Stakeholders in Decision Making: COVID-19 Pandemic and Beyond. Register now!

SELPA System Improvement Leads: A series of 5 webinars focused on High Leverage Practices (HLP) within a distance learning environment to address equity gaps and student needs. Register now to learn about high impact, research-based practices to support improved outcomes for all students. All sessions: 3:00-4:00 pm
- June 10: Creating Communication Systems for Collaboration
- June 17: Building on Collaboration Systems to Support Effective Meetings
- June 24: Routines for Distance Learning
- July 1: Implementing Effective and Positive Behavior Strategies
- July 8: Reflecting on Your Practice: Identify Effective Distance Learning Strategies

Special Education Collective: Instructional resources are organized into 4 focus areas identified through research to improve outcomes for students with disabilities.

2020 Early Math Symposium: Live in your living room! Registration for this year’s Early Math Symposium is focused on fun, creativity, and discovery to support the mathematical development of all young children! Please join us online Friday, June 26, 2020.

CDE Stronger Together: A Guidebook for the Safe Reopening of California’s Public Schools. Learn more!

CCEE Continuity of Learning Playbook: Plan a safe return to school that maximizes future equity outcomes. Webinars to learn more about the Playbook are scheduled on June 15, June 16, June 17, and June 23.

CCEE and CDE invite you to Learn with Our Global Colleagues: Re-Engaging School Communities on June 23, 3:30-5:00 to connect with educational leaders from British Columbia and Australia. Register now!