What is Literacy?

bit.ly/K2lit
How might we leverage technology to support early literacy?

How could that look in:

- Whole group instruction?
- Small group instruction?
- Independent tasks?
- Assessment?
- REMOTE LEARNING?

Bookazon Book Review
March 20, 1840

Dear Cousin Mary,

Today was a hard day. I woke up when it was still dark outside so I could get to work on time. I worked in the factory for 14 hours. I enjoy earning a paycheck, but it’s exhausting to work 70 hours a week!

It is so hot and dirty in the factory. I really do miss the farm back home! I remember when we used to play with our dolls and help mother make dinner. I hope I can see you again soon!

Love,
Sarah
I’m going to tell you about the book ______.

In this story______.

I like this book because ______.
Responding to text:

Seesaw Photo

The Chimichangos were frustrated that the Bandito was stealing their beans! They asked Skippito for help!

I feel frustrated when someone takes my things from me too.

Chapter Two Changing Weather

Throughout fall, we feel the weather change from warm to cold. Our part of the planet gets the most sunlight during summer.

It gets the least sunlight during winter. Fall weather feels cooler than summer weather. Fall weather feels warmer than winter weather.

Animals notice cooler weather too. They get ready for winter during fall. Some animals grow thicker coats of fur. Others hide food so they can eat it later.
