

SUMMER LEARNING ROUNDTABLE

How to create a summer of re-engagement, reconnection, and reimagined learning

It's time to start planning for summer!

Summer programs in 2021—where educators worked hard to blend academic support with fun, enrichment, and joy—provide a template for how schools can leverage time in the summer to support their students and staff as the impacts of the pandemic remain widely evident. See our report about successful summer programs in 2021.

Join us for an interactive discussion with educators from around California about how to overcome barriers and implement new approaches to summer programs. The discussion will be followed by on-the-spot coaching to address your pressing challenges.

Wednesday, December 8 at 3pm PT

Register

Speakers:

- Rody Boonchouy, Ed.D., Associate Superintendent - Instructional Services at Davis Joint Unified School District
- Dr. Shawna Dinkins, Assistant Superintendent, Educational Services, Lynwood Unified School District
- Julie Jarrett, Director of Expanded Learning at Butte County Office of Education
- Sonya Lopez Mercado, Ed.D., Director of District Programs, Rio Elementary School District
- Jennifer Peck, President and CEO, Partnership for Children & Youth
- Moderator: Chris Hartley, Deputy Executive Director for Transformative Systems, California Collaborative for Educational Excellence

Who should attend:

District and school administrators, teachers, expanded learning staff, parents, advocacy organizations, and community members will benefit from the insights and practical advice. Participants who join with a team of colleagues can receive individualized coaching.