

Open Door Session: Reimagining Education: Insights from the Frontlines of School Transformation

Tuesday, March 5 2024 from 3:00 - 4:00pm

Join three exceptional school principals and teacher leaders for an inside look at how they are reimagining education at their schools. Through the Intensive Assistance Model (IAM) pilot, these educators have implemented powerful new strategies - centered on teacher collaboration and meeting individual student needs - that are delivering remarkable results.

In this open invitation session, you'll discover how schools are moving beyond pandemic recovery to continuous improvement through dedicated professional learning communities and shared commitment . Gain insights around key themes:

- Implementing the Guiding Coalition
- Structures and processes for effective collaboration
- Strategies and interventions tailored to students
- Improved academic outcomes and teacher work/life balance
