

Highlighting Innovative Strategies to Support Student Success

The Innovation, Instruction, and Impact (I3) Center designs and implements strategy and initiatives to share lessons learned from our work and emerging/best practices from the field to support sustained improvement for students. This handout outlines the impact of key initiatives that aim to identify, vet, and disseminate emerging and best practices, strategies, and resources to address current high priority needs of local educational agencies (LEAs).

14 Open Door Sessions

907 Registered Participants

Covered Topics

- Artificial intelligence in education
- LCAP supports
- Graduate profiles
- Data-driven decision-making
- Chronic absenteeism supports and resources
- Student learning communities
- Math instruction
- Climate emergencies preparedness
- Whole-child approach
- Local assessment systems
- Formative assessment best practices
- Data dashboards
- Universal design for learning

13 LEA Spotlights

3.4K Page Views

Scan the QR code below to view the Spotlights!

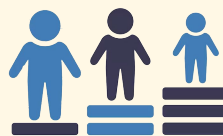

Spotlights highlight innovative practices focused on:

Data-driven decision-making

Student-centered approaches

Equity & inclusion

Strong partnerships & true collaboration